FLAMES MAKE SWEEP OF HOTEL AND THEATRE 100 GUESTS ESCAPE

Hunt Incendiary in $600,000 Blaze at North Adams-Panic and Lives Menaced.

NORTH ADAMS, Mass., July 2.-Fire early to-day destroyed the Wilson House, the oldest hotel in the city, the Empire Theatre, the Empire apartment House and the Sullivan Brothers furniture building. The loss is estimated at $600,000.

hard work by the combined fire department of Adams and North Adams when the firemen arrived was beyond the check yesterday . their control. The flames spread from the lower part of the hotel to the upper stories and there was a pante and frantic rush of the 100 or more With few exceptions the hotel guests were able to reach the street unassisted. Walter H. Downs, an aged yard adjoining his home. man, was overcome by smoke. Chief Montgomery and other firemen groped their way through the smoke filled hallways and brought him safely out from the building.

From the hotel the flames spread to and destroyed the Empire apartment house, a four-story brick structure. The Empire Theatre, close by, next caught and was soon a total loss. The theatre had a seating capacity of 1,400. Sullivan Bros.' furniture store and warehouse. located in a seven-story building, was bubrned to the ground. A small wooden building and a stable situated close by were also destroyed before the flame were brought under control.

were also destroyed before the flames were brought under control.

Occupants of lower floors in the Sullivan building lost considerable property. Tuttle and Bryant, drygoods dealers, suffered damage amounting to 380,000. Sullivan Bros., a corporation of six brothers, were the principal losers. Their loss is partially covered by insurance.

TO WIN EIGHTEENTH GAME.

Harburger Held Back Service of $145 Judgment Till Giant Pitcher Had Turned the Trick.

How the law stood aside and helped Rube Marquard win his eighteenth sucressive game for the Glants is told by a check for $165 that arrived to-day at Sheriff Harburger's office.

A theatrical newspaper got judgment that the child had failen down the against the ball flinger for advertising steps, breaking the bottle, and that the his theatrical act a year ago. The ex-A theatrical newspaper got judgment ecution was handed in at the Sheriff's office Saturday with orders to serve it that afternoon at the Polo Grounds. Deputies Winter and Metager caffed ap Sheriff Harburger at Baltimore.

"Wait till the game's over," commanded the Sheriff, who is something of a fan himself. "Don't you know that Marquard will never win that eighteenth successive game if you boys For a time it was feared that several start anything? Far be it from me to other buildings would be burned, but ignore the law ,but wait, boys-wait. Let him win first."

The deputies did. When they told checked the flames. The police have begun an investigation of a report that after the game, the touser was so tickled he fire was of incendiary origin.

Starting in the kitchen of Wilson's that he gave Winter the ball for his hotel, the fire made rapid progress and young son. Secretary O'Brien made out
